1. The difficulties hitherto experienced over subsidence of soil in the tunnels have now been largely overcome and work is proceeding more rapidly.
2. At present the main work is being carried out in the center of the city, where construction of the tunnel abutments has started.
3. The management of the building contractors anticipate that the first sector of the railway will be completed by July 1955.

Comment:

all work on the subway has ceased as far as can be ascertained from surface observations.
